

HADLEY POULTRY COMPANY ASSIGNS

Heavy Slump in Prices of Storage Eggs and Butter Causes Failure of Local Firm.

S. A. BARNES IS MADE ASSIGNEE

Firm Was a Heavy Buyer of Produce and Handled Large Quantities of Eggs and Butter Annually.

The Hadley Poultry Company made an assignment Wednesday evening and S. A. Barnes is named as the assignee. The firm which consists of N. S. Hadley, proprietor, with Frank H. Hadley as manager, has been doing a large poultry and produce business the past five years, for the past three years being located in the old Hygiene mill property. The heavy slump in the price of cold storage eggs and butter during the last few days is the cause of the failure. The firm had several carloads of eggs and butter which had been bought when prices were higher last spring, summer and fall. When the market dropped before these were sold, they were placed in cold storage with the hope that the winter weather as it usually does, would bring the price to a point where they could be sold at a profit. The warm weather of last week started the supply of fresh eggs in greater than usual abundance, and the price of fresh eggs declined several cents, carrying along with the decline the price of storage holdings as well. On the eggs in storage, loans were secured from the eastern houses up to an amount where they regarded themselves safe. When the price dropped so that the eggs would bring less than they had advanced on them, they began calling on the firm here for cash to make good the decline. This demand the company was unable to meet and the assignment followed.

The liabilities are difficult to estimate at the market value of the produce on hand fluctuates so much that a change of a few cents in the price of eggs and butter will make a difference of several thousand dollars in the assets of the firm. On present market values the losses will probably run from $10,000 to $15,000. The heaviest local creditor is John J. Cobb who loaned the firm some money last June, and holds the company's notes for the amount of his loan. There are some notes due the First National Bank, but these are amply secured by individual endorsement. There are a number of other local creditors for small amounts, mostly for produce shipped within the last few days. The heaviest losses otherwise will be sustained by the storage houses in the cities who have made advances on the stock in storage. These creditors however, have the opportunity to hold the produce, if it seems best in their judgment, awaiting a favorable turn in the market before selling. In this way they may be able to materially reduce their losses, and possibly to come out without a loss.

The building occupied by the company was purchased about three years ago from the former owners by Miss Alice Hadley, of Watseka, Ills.,

and it was fitted up especially for the produce business.

Mr. Hadley is unsettled as to his future, but will probably seek employment with some produce firm. He is an energetic produce dealer, and during his business here has handled many thousand dollars worth of produce annually.

PROPOSED NEW BILL

Would Repeal High School Diploma Qualifications for Teachers.

Declaring that the present law governing the qualifications of teachers for the public schools is class legislation, Representative Askren, author of a bill providing the repeal of the high school diploma qualification, said Wednesday he had assurance of a majority report from the Committee on Education which would be favorable to his bill.

The committee at a meeting Wednesday decided to hold a public hearing on the measure at 2 o'clock next Thursday if the House is not in session at that time; otherwise the meeting will be at 7:30 p. m. Representative Cook's bill, providing for a teachers' disability and retirement fund, will be discussed at the same meeting.

Mr. Askren said last night that five of the nine Democratic members of the committee had promised to support the measure, and while he said he had not approached the minority members he was certain that two of the three would vote to report favorably on the bill.

STRANGER MET DEATH IN YARDS

Unknown Man Killed by Fast Passenger Train While Walking Along B. & O. S-W. Track.

WAS WITH TWO COMPANIONS

Story that Man May Have Been Robbed After the Accident is Not Believed by Officers.

An unknown man was struck and instantly killed by the B. & O. S-W. westbound passenger train No. 3 in the railroad yards here shortly after 12 o'clock this morning. The stranger was walking down the main track in company with two other men and did not hear the approaching engine until it was too close upon him to jump from the track. His body was hurled several feet into the air and was thrown some distance from the track.

The unfortunate man came to Seymour from Cincinnati, with Jacob Wallace and Michael Egan, both of Pittsburg. They were riding on a freight train that left Cincinnati about noon Wednesday and arrived here a few minutes before the arrival of the passenger train. When the freight slowed down as they entered the yards the men jumped from the car in which they were riding and started to walk towards the station. In order to keep out of the snow they walked along the edge of the ties, Wallace taking the lead, the stranger in the middle and Egan following.

On account of the noise of the other trains in the yards the men did not hear the approaching passenger train until it was a short distance from them. Egan noticed it first and called to his companions to jump. Wallace heard the warning call and jumped from the track, but it seemed that the stranger did not hear the call. Wallace, realizing that his companion did not know of the danger, started to pull him from the track, but the engine was too close upon him and struck him before he could get out of the way.

Wallace was struck on the hand and arm by the engine with such force that he was thrown to the ground. Fearing that he might fall under the wheels if he attempted to get up he laid on the ground until the train pulled by him. When he arose Egan told him of the misfortune of their companion and they found the body some distance from the place where the accident occurred. Wallace remained with the body while Egan went back to the caboose of the freight where he informed a brakeman of the accident. Several of the switchmen in the yards were soon called and the body was removed to Heideman's undertaking establishment. Wallace's injured hand and arm were given proper attention. He was taken in charge by the night policemen and taken to jail where he was held for the inquest.

The stranger who was killed wore a black suit and a gray cap. His shirt was white with black stripes and he wore a black and red tie. His shoes were somewhat worn and showed that he had walked considerably during the past few weeks.

There was nothing whatever about his clothes by which he could be identified and there were no distinguishing marks about his body, except a short scar on the fore finger of his left hand. He had gray eyes, dark brown hair and was about five feet nine inches tall. He weighed about 165 or 170 pounds. He appeared to be about twenty-two years of age.

When questioned regarding the stranger Wallace, who was with him when he was killed, stated that he had never seen him before until they met Wednesday about the time they were getting ready to get on the freight train. Wallace said he and Egan were acquainted and that they talked very little to their companion. He stated, however, that the stranger had remarked that his home was in Virginia and that he was on his way to Oklahoma where he thought he could secure employment.

Wallace said that when they got off of the freight Egan, who has been here before, said that they could probably stay all night in the ice plant and that they were on their way to that place when their companion was killed. Wallace gave his occupation as a cleanser and dyer, but stated that there but little work in the house where he was employed in Pittsburg and was placed on a two-day-a-week shift, and for that reason was going to Lawrenceville, Ill., where he hoped to secure employment in the oil fields. He said that he was acquainted with the foreman of the field and felt assured that he would be given a place. Egan has been employed at various places recently in the oil fields. He was also intending to go to Illinois.

When the details of the accident were learned it was thought that the stranger might have been robbed after he was killed, but after an investigation the police placed no faith in the supposition. The two men who were with him told the same story about how they met the unfortunate man and there was nothing about their actions to implicate them.

Coroner Frank Dowden, of Brownstown, was notified of the accident, and arrived here this morning to hold the inquest.

After several witnesses were examined the Coroner held that the stranger's death was accidental. The body will be held here for a short time before burial, so that if possible his relatives can make the proper identification. If not identified before tomorrow the remains will be interred in the Riverview cemetery.

LIST OF CENSUS TAKERS COMPLETE

Every Block in the City Has Been Supplied With an Enumerator for "Census Day."

CAREFUL RECORD BEING MADE

Enumeration Cards Are Ready for Distribution and May Be Had at Clerk's or Treasurer's Office.

The list of enumerators who will take the census in Seymour next Monday is complete, the few remaining blocks which were not named having been supplied yesterday afternoon. There are a total of 175 blocks in the city and 160 enumerators have been appointed. The difference in the numbers is accounted for as several of the enumerators will take the census of their own block and another where only a few persons reside. In this manner all of the blocks will be taken.

The enumerators can secure their supplies from the city clerk's or treasurer's office, and they are requested to call for the cards before Sunday. Following a suggestion that a census be taken of the suburbs outside of the city limits, several enumerators have been appointed in the various parts of the city. # Osteopathy

IS NATURE'S AID TO HEALTH AND APPEALS TO REASON.

It is not a cureall, but it adds years to the life and life to the years of chronic sufferers, who have tried other methods without success. If you are rheumatic, neuralgic, dyspeptic, paralytic, asthmatic, can't eat, can't sleep, all fagged out without exertion, fractious and fly to pieces, fear a nervous collapse, something is seriously clogging the wheels of life. The longer you try to work while the body machinery is out of gear, the greater will be the damage it suffers.

The Human Body a Working Machine.

No defective machine can turn out good work. Every day that an "unclean" watch, auto, or any other machine is compelled to run, wears seriously its vital parts and saps its vitality.

Man of today is as near a machine as he probably ever can become, and still exist. To keep him in perfect "running order" he has to be treated as such. Now, if your watch or auto had slipped a cog, or was "clogged up" with foreign matter threatening its very existence unless removed, would you apply acid or dope to rid it of foreign matter or to adjust its parts?

As With Auto and Watch

so with the human body; it gets out of running order through the process of life and needs repairing. It has been abundantly demonstrated in this community that health depends upon the human machine being kept in good mechanical order. Adjustment of the human body is the particular and special work of the

SPAUNHURST OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIANS.

That they are expert body machinists, know what to do and how to correctly fix what is mechanically wrong with the body structure is evidenced by kindly expressions of those who have given their treatment a fair trial. Ask them about it.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The first installment of Taxes must be paid on or before the FIRST MONDAY in May, otherwise the whole tax will be delinquent and subject to penalties. Particular attention is called to the fact that spring payments, having been extended to the first Monday in May, gives the Treasurer less time to make settlements and it will be to the interest of the taxpayers to be as prompt as possible in paying the same. The second installment must be paid on or before the FIRST MONDAY in NOVEMBER following. Road receipts must be presented on or before the FIRST MONDAY in MAY, 1911. They will not be taken on second installment of taxes.

Call on Auditor for irregularities in Taxes or for reductions to be made. Treasurer cannot make such reductions. County orders cannot be paid to anyone owing delinquent taxes, and all persons are hereby warned against purchasing such order.

The annual sale of delinquent lands and lots will take place on the second Monday in February, 1911, at 10 o'clock a. m. Persons desiring statement of their taxes must make their request at least ten days before the last day as we cannot stop to send statements during the last days of collection.

Parties having complications please come before the rush incident to the last days of Taxpaying. The Treasurer is guided by the Statutes of Indiana, from which there is no relief. Do not ask him to violate his oath. Taxes unpaid after the first Mondays in May and November are subject to the 10 per cent penalty. We intend to follow the law in each and every case. If taxpayers would avoid the penalty prescribed by law, payment must be made not later than Monday, May 1st and November 6th, 1911. Remittance post marked Monday, May 1st, and Monday, November 6th, and reaching this office next day will be accepted.

Persons owing delinquent taxes should pay them at once. The late law is of such a character that there is no option left the Treasurer but to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, however much he may regret to collect the same, by sale of property. Nothing is exempt from taxes.

HENRY PRICE,

Treasurer of Jackson County.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Parties having school fund loan on which interest is delinquent will please give payment of said interest their attention before the first day of March 1911, as the law compels the prompt collection of said interest.

H. W. WACKER, Auditor Jackson County, Indiana.

THE AIRSHIP AS A NAVAL SCOUT

Eugene Ely Makes Another Fine Demonstration.

A CONVINCING PERFORMANCE

Flying From Selfridge Field, the Bold Scout of the Air Lanes Swooped Down Upon the Deck of the Battleship Pennsylvania Out in San Francisco Bay, Twelve Miles Away, and Then Made a Safe Return.

San Francisco, Jan. 19.—When he flew twelve miles from shore to the deck of the cruiser Pennsylvania, anchored in San Francisco bay, made a perfect landing on the warship, and after turning about his machine launched it in the air again and flew back to the starting point, Eugene B. Ely accomplished a feat of aviation. Ely, who is a native son and one of the Curtiss flyers, took the air from Selfridge Field, where the Thirtieth infantry was encamped for the occasion. He got off without a hitch and sped the distance of twelve miles across the bay in sixteen minutes. The Pennsylvania was the center of a fleet of warships and the bay was alive with craft of all description. When Ely's machine was first sighted from the warships, the plane broke through the mist and swept up the bay like an enormous gull, never wavering or faltering for an instant.

The air was smoky and the aviator flew low, so that it was difficult to pick him up until he was a few miles away. A blast from the Pennsylvania's siren, which was taken up by a chorus of other whistles, gave the first warning of the aeroplane's appearance. At brief intervals the sirens shrieked. Then as the air craft soared down to the deck of the cruiser they all let go in a mighty shout.

Ely flew through the cruiser squadron very close to the water. He approached the Pennsylvania from her bows, swept past her for a few hundred yards and then circled back, mounting slowly and settling lightly on the big platform that covered the ship's after deck. Ely landed so lightly that his biplane was hardly shaken. Ely's return flight was without incident. When he alighted he received a warm reception from the army officers and troops of the Thirtieth infantry encamped on the grounds. He said: "This was easy. I could do it every day."

On Nov. 3 last Ely made the first successful flight from ship to shore when he flew from the forward deck of the scout cruiser Birmingham, anchored in Hampton Roads off Old Point Comfort, across Chesapeake bay, landing on the shore opposite Fortress Monroe.

At Aviation Field the experiment was tried as to whether wireless messages could be sent from the ground to an aviator in the air while he was making investigations of the troops. Willard went up and heard distinctly a message sent to him by wireless.

For Doubting Thomases.
Washington, Jan. 19.—"The feat of Aviator Ely in landing in an aeroplane on the deck of the Pennsylvania at San Francisco must convince the 'doubting Thomases' of the value of aviation in naval warfare," said Captain W. I. Chambers, aviation expert of the navy.

The other two were sent to prison, one for eleven years and the other for eight years.

Enfield, Mass., Jan. 19.—A large eagle, ravenous with hunger, attacked and killed a deer at Quabbin lake. A number of farmers witnessed the encounter, but did not interfere, as both deer and eagle are protected by rigid statutes, which made no provision for the regulation of the combat. When the game warden arrived the eagle was feasting on his adversary's carcass.

Caught Under Tank Car.
Richmond, Ind., Jan. 19.—As a result of spreading rails, a freight train on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad was wrecked a few miles north of Richmond. The cars were piled up in great confusion, and Engineer Haynes, who attempted to jump, was caught beneath the tank car and crushed. He will die.

KEEPING UP THE FLOOD OF BILLS

Indiana Legislature Planning a Busy Program.

POURED INTO DAILY HOPPER

The Legislators, Despite the Incident of Electing a United States Senator, Yesterday Found Time to Introduce Forty-Nine New Bills Which Their Authors Desire to Have Enacted Into Laws.

Indianapolis, Jan. 19.—The bill appropriating $103,000 to redeem state fair ground live stock pavilion bonds and to pay the interest on the bonds was passed under suspension of rule in the house yesterday, and twenty-seven new bills were introduced.

Twenty-two new bills were introduced in the senate and Senator Stotsenburg was sworn in as president pro tem of the senate. Among the bills introduced was one which would provide for free school books, another for public records of prescriptions for liquor presented at drug stores, another for creating a department of horticulture and forestry, and others for state-wide primary elections, and for remedying the law's delays.

Mr. Kern's Frank Talk.

In acknowledging the high honor which had come to him through his election to the position of United States senator from Indiana, Mr. Kern's speech was brief and wholly without partisan color.

He thanked the general assembly for the honor conferred upon him and declared that "it is an especially great honor to be elected the successor of the present able and patriotic senator from Indiana," and he paid Beveridge a further compliment by saying that "after twenty years of faithful service he will retire from that body with integrity unquestioned, with ability universally acknowledged and a reputation for eloquence and earnestness altogether unsurpassed."

The new senator referred to his Democracy, but said he was under no obligations save those which he owes the great body of the people of his state. He added: "I have no apprehension that I shall ever be called upon to make the choice, but if the time should ever come when I must choose between party and country, then party and party interest must be subordinated to the right and interests of the people. But in the event that in matters of material and vital importance to party and country I find myself at variance with my party in nation and state, I shall not hesitate to surrender the commission which, in accordance with the party's mandate, has this day so generously given me."

To Strengthen Accounting Law.

A bill to regulate the manner of collecting money found by the state board of accounts to be due to the state or to any municipality has been prepared, embodying ideas from the governor, the attorney general and the chief of the state board of accounts, and is designed to strengthen the public accounting law.

The bill provides for a separate law concerning the reporting of examinations and for collection of the shortages, and proposes to change the present method of collecting shortages in the following points:

The attorney general shall have full charge of proceedings to collect only where the shortages are found in connection with state departments or state institutions, or when specifically ordered by the governor to assume such charge when the report concerns any municipality or corporation outside the state departments or institutions, the attorney general shall send the report to the prosecuting attorney of the circuit in which the municipality or corporation is situated, and it shall become the duty of the prosecuting attorney to institute proceedings within thirty days. In the event the bill becomes a law the prosecuting attorneys shall assume charge of the trial of cases already filed by the attorney general on reports of shortages, which, under the present law, would be prosecuted by the attorney general.

The bill is so drawn as to leave in the hands of the governor and the attorney general control, through the prosecuting attorneys, of the prosecutions at all times. The governor's order to the attorney general, the bill proposes, shall be sufficient excuse for any prosecuting attorney for acting in compliance with the governor's order. The bill provides further that an informal complaint will be all that will be necessary in filing suit.

The bill further provides for a fee system by which the prosecutors shall be paid for the extra work caused by the provisions of the act, and also proposes to empower the prosecuting attorney, with the consent of the chief examiner of the state board, to make compromises or adjustments in any case, the prosecutor, in the event of such compromise or adjustments, is to receive one-half the percentage set out above.

A radical change is also proposed in the method of making public the reports of the examiners.

Ottawa, Decatur and Dixon are the latest Illinois cities to adopt the commission form of government.

A CORRUPT DEAL SAYS SEN. BORAH

Idaho Statesman Analyzes Evidence in Lorimer Case.

NOT THE RESULT OF ACCIDENT

In Speaking Against the Report of the Burrows Committee, Senator Borah Challenged the Statement That Corruption Had Not Entered Into Lorimer's Election and Gave His Own Views in Direct Fashion.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The Lorimer case held the attention of the senate yesterday. Senator Burrows of Michigan, chairman of the commission of privileges and elections, defended Mr. Lorimer's right to his seat, and Senator Borah of Idaho attacked the senator's title to his seat and demanded that the seat be declared vacant.

Senator Borah made what is regarded as the strongest presentation of the case against Lorimer that the senate has yet heard. Analyzing the testimony taken by the committee, he declared the evidence shows conclusively that there was a corrupt deal behind the Lorimer election. In his conclusion, delivered with dramatic effect, Senator Borah said:

"Mr. President, this much must be admitted: That from the hour that Mr. Lorimer declared he was a candidate upon the morning of the 26th of May, a stream of corruption began to flow which has never ceased. It has not only entered into the legislature, it has gone into the courts; it has affected juries; it has broken down lawyers; it has left in its wake broken reputations, and its entire course gives evidence of combination of well planned and well digested and well prepared schemes, showing that it was not the result of accident, not the result of parties coming together through inadvertence or accident, but the drawing together by reason of some powerful organizing mind—concealing every step where it was possible to conceal and cover it successfully—till one unmitigated scoundrel following the same impulse that moved him when he moved for money undertook again to sell himself and revealed the fact which drew in Holtzlaw, Beckmeyer, Link, Luke and Wilson and the whole scheme."

LODGE RE-ELECTED

Massachusetts Senator Received Six Votes More Than a Majority.

Boston, Jan. 19.—Henry Cabot Lodge of Nahant was elected United States senator for the fourth time by the Massachusetts legislature sitting in joint convention. Of the 280 legislators, 279 voted when their names were called, and Mr. Lodge received 146, or six more than a majority. Sherman L. Whipple, his Democratic opponent, received 121 votes. Congressman Butler Ames received seven votes; A. Lawrence Lowell president of Harvard, was voted for by two anti-Lodge men; John R. Thayer, Curtis Guild, Jr., and Sylvester J. McBride each received a vote. Representative Kilpatrick of Lowell, an original Ames supporter, left him and voted for Lodge. The sensation of the convention was the shifting of two Democratic senators of Boston districts from the Whipple to the Lodge column, and they were the only Democratic votes the Republican senator received. Both these men were elected on platforms pledging all Democratic candidates to vote against Lodge. They both voted for Whipple Tuesday, and their overnight shift was the cause of much comment.

Suggests Census Figures Be Placed on Stationery.

The Columbus Republican regarding the recount which will be made in Seymour says:

Seymour, disappointed over the showing made in the official census report, is arranging to have another enumeration made. Doubtless the new figures, whatever they may be, will not be accepted by the Census Bureau, but Seymour will not care for a little thing like that, just so the figures show a greater population than the official figures. They can use both sets of figures on their stationery, like people have to when they have two telephone systems.

COMPANY PLEASES CROWDS

Harvey Stock Company Satisfied With Three Engagements Here.

The Harvey Stock Company will give its fourth play here this evening.
The three plays which have been given were well attended, and the audiences seemed to be well pleased with the manner in which the plays were given. The company here is "No. 1" and is regarded as one of the strongest stock companies on the road.

The play last night was "The News-boy's Queen" and was a clever dramatization of life in the slums linked with that of the more desirable surroundings. Tonight the company will present a comedy, entitled "Hello Bill," and is a laugh from start to finish.

WHO IS TO BLAME

For so Many Sickly Children?

We hear of so many children who are thin, delicate, ailing and tired all the time, we are led to ask what is the cause, and who is to blame?

Don't blame the children—they have no strength. They play hard, work hard at school, and rapid growth takes all their strength.

It is the mothers of all such children who are to blame, for if they only realized what our delicious cod liver and iron tonic will do for their little ones, they wouldn't sleep at night until they had started them on Vinol.

Only a few days ago a case came to our attention.—Mrs. W. H. Gilmore of Durand, Mich., had a little daughter nine years of age. She was weak, pale, ailing and nothing seemed to do her any good. She gave her Vinol and she began to thrive at once and gained rapidly in weight, color and strength.

We positively know Vinol will build up your little ones and make them healthy, strong and robust. Try a bottle and if you are not satisfied we will return your money. We make this offer to show you our confidence and belief in Vinol. Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

SHOES

Does the school
shoe proposition distract you? Then you have never tried the Rice & Hutchins School Shoe, made by the largest manufacturer of shoes in the world and every pair warranted not to rip and to give reasonable service. Also Men's and Women's.

ROSS*CREATED SENSATION

Giulia Morosini Gave Hand to Man Who Saved Her Life.

New York, Jan. 19.—Miss Giulia Morosini, inheritor of millions, has caused a profound sensation among her fashionable friends by marrying Arthur Maurice Werner, for years an honor man in the New York city mounted police. Werner rescued Miss Morosini in a runaway accident several years ago.

PITIFUL ENDING OF A SUMMER ROMANCE

Girl Comes to Wed Man Whose Body Two Women Claim.

Hammond, Ind., Jan. 19.—When Miss Cora Guthrie of Alleghany, Pa., arrived with her trousseau to wed James S. Snyder of the Inland Steel company's plant at Indiana Harbor, the pitiful ending of a summer romance in the east was disclosed here. Without an inkling of the facts and after numerous social functions had been given in her honor and to celebrate her wedding by Alleghany school friends, Miss Guthrie found upon her arrival that her fiancé lay dead in St.
Margaret's hospital in Hammond and that two women, each claiming to be Snyder's wife, were fighting for his body.

Snyder was removed to the hospital last week very ill. He had not apprised Miss Guthrie of his illness.
Sunday, while in delirium, he eluded his nurses and leaped from a secondstory window. His death resulted.
Snyder had no relatives here and few friends. His trunk was ransacked and from letters found notice of the projected wedding with Miss Guthrie was discovered. Those of Mrs. Harry Thomas of Lorain, O., and Mrs. J. S.
Snyder of Moundsville, Pa., were among the addresses found, and the authorities notified them. Telegrams from both women were received, also one from an undertaker at Monongahela, Pa., claiming the body. It was learned that Snyder had a twelve-year-old son at Elizabeth, Pa.

Local police are unable to find whether Snyder had been divorced from either of his alleged wives.

selected as the short-term nominee the governor, Clarence W. Watson, a multimillionaire.

the sovereignty of Peru. Serious consequences are feared.

Last Letter by Dickens.

In the February Strand Magazine is reproduced a facsimile taken from the last letter written by Charles Dickens. It has been given elsewhere, says Mr. Holt Schooling, but not satisfied with the facsimile I saw, I obtained permission to take this direct from the letter in the British Museum.
The last paragraph reads: "But I hope I may be ready at 3 o'clock. If I can't be, why, then I shan't be. Ever affectionately, C. D." This was written an hour or so before the fatal seizure. Every word drops below the level from which each starts, each line of writing descends across the page, the simple C. D. is very shaky, and the whole letter is broken and weak. Charles Dickens was not "ready" at "3 o'clock"—he died at ten minutes past six p. m.

GOV. DIX SAYS IT ISN'T HIS FIGHT

Keeps Hands off New York Senatorial Contest.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 19.—In joint session the legislature assembled to compare the vote of the two houses taken separately on the candidates for United States senator. On announcement that there was no choice the senate and the assembly voted again. There was no change in the senate vote. In the assembly Sheehan lost one vote, that of Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, who voted for Shepard. Chanler stated that he believed himself to be relieved from his caucus obligations. Shepard lost two votes when Assemblyman Saunders changed to Parker, and Assemblyman Terry changed to Gerard. The vote of the joint session was: Total vote, 1971; necessary to choice, 99; Sheehan, 90; Shepard, 13; Parker, 7; Gerard, 3; Littleton and Herrick each 2; Depeu, 80.

The struggle over the United States senatorship is the uppermost topic. Charles F. Murphy, Daniel F. Cohalan, John H. McCoe and their friends are overrun with visitors at their headquarters. The leaders said that Sheehan, by the action of the joint caucus, had become the candidate of the Democratic organization and the organization would stick to him through thick and thin.

Governor Dix has reiterated his determination not to interfere with the senatorial contest, although he said he thought it a serious situation. The governor has hopes that it will speedily be cleared up. There is talk of a possible compromise candidate.

WOULD CHANGE LAWS

Regarding Voting on Amendments To State Constitution.

State Senator Evan B. Stotesburg, of New Albany, is author of a bill which he believes will solve the difficulty in getting enough votes on propositions to amend the State constitution and he will make a strong effort to have the bill enacted into a law.

The statutes require that a proposition to amend the constitution must receive a majority of all votes cast in the state and for this reason, owing to the indifference of the voters, it has been impossible to secure amendments.

Senator Stotesburg's bill would make it lawful for political parties at their State conventions to decide for or against proposed constitutional amendments and the result of this decision would be placed on the party ticket, a vote for that ticket being a vote in favor of the party's stand on the question.

It provides that in case a voter wishes to vote for the party candidates but against the stand taken by the party on the proposed amendment, he can record his vote in that way.

At the last election when a vote on the proposed amendment required all attorneys desiring admission to the state bar to pass an examination, only a small percentage of the voters voted on the amendment.

Immediately after the election of the directors the board met and elected the following officers: John Q. Foster, president; Holmes Robertson, secretary; G. C. Borcharding, treasurer.

The business of the company has grown steadily since it was first organized as a mutual concern. Each year a large number of policies are written and at the present time the company has about $1,000,000 of insurance issued.

STILL IN LIST OF MISSING

Whereabouts of P. A. Brewer, Who Escaped from Officer, Unknown.

P. A. Brewer, who escaped from Special Constable James Gillispie, of Crothersville, has not been located and he is still listed with the missing. Brewer is the man who was arrested by Constable Gillispie at Kurtz upon a peace warrant.

After the fugitive left Kurtz he was seen at Odon, and that is the last that was heard of him. Before taking his unexpected leave from the officer Brewer threatened injury to several people and also to destroy their property. Some believe that he will endeavor to sneak back to Crothersville in the near future and many endeavor to carry out his threats. Brewer's daughter was left at the home of John Perry at Crothersville until some disposition can be made of the case.

The Newest Features in Skirts.

Furnished by Pictorial Review
THE PICTORIAL REVIEW BLDG.

222-224-226 West 39th St., New York City

Notwithstanding the doubt and uncertainty that assailed women on the skirt question in the early Fall, they have, as usual, settled the problem quite to their own satisfaction. Fashion has dictated that skirts be narrow as well as short. Women of fashion have skillfully adapted this style in ways that are becoming and graceful, though still adhering to the very narrow silhouette. The skirts of walking costumes are close fitting and some of them have the high waistline. A very fashionable feature of the new skirts is the lapped seams, which form plaits. The back of the skirt is usually in habit style, some having a broad flat plait, and others having a group of plaits at each side, stitched down to knee depth. The short length is accepted for afternoon gowns also.

The narrow skirts generally have the straight lines though some kind of a deep facing is a feature very well liked. PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERN NO. 3715 illustrates this idea perfectly. It is a smart skirt having the popular lapped seams and it closes to the left of the center-back. It can be made in either regulation or shorter length and comes in sizes 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure. Size 26 requires 3 yards of 44 inch material.

The gored model with the lapped seams is a favorite with conservative dressmakers who, nevertheless, like to be up-to-date. The design having a broad, back box plait giving a straight, flat figure is a good one. Sometimes it is varied by both front and back being a plait and each seam having a plait extension about twelve inches from the lower edge. This plait is so skillfully pressed down, however, as to be scarcely noticeable.

The four-piece skirt delineated in PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERN NO. 3716 has an inserted hip section—a novel feature. This is an excellent style and tends to make the hips look smaller. Its sizes are 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure. Size 26 requires 5 yards of 27 inch material.

A new wrinkle in skirts is the single inverted pleat at each side. These plaits are stitched down to about twelve inches from the bottom of the skirt and then allowed to fly open. They do not however interfere with the narrow tendency of skirts this season.

The price of these patterns including cutting and construction guides is 15 cents each number.

Portsmouth, O., Jan. 16.—Judge A. Z. Blair announced that he will institute an investigation of political grafting in Scioto county similar to that conducted in Adams county. ## BOTTOM HAS FALLEN OUT OF FOOD PRICES

Cold Storage Men Victims of Their Own Greed.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Millions of pounds of cold storage butter, eggs, cheese and poultry, some of it five years old, according to estimates of dealers, are about to be thrown on the market and sacrificed at whatever price they will bring as the result of the collapse within the last few days of the "food trust," which by steady aggressions has piled prices of provisions up to their present figures.

Chicago wholesalers admit the bottom has fallen out of prices for dairy products and poultry and that a big slump is due as soon as the contents of the cold storage warehouses can be put on the market. They claim an attempt is being made by retailers to keep prices up to an abnormal level by buying small stocks at low figures and selling them to the public at the old high levels.

Although the collapse of the "corner" is likely to be felt most keenly by the cold storage men of Chicago, the pinch will be felt in many of the important shipping centers of the east and middle west. Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis and Minneapolis were spoken of as the points where most of the unloading probably would be done. The collapse has been due to natural causes.

Just how much food is in storage in and around Chicago, there is no means of ascertaining. Only the wholesalers know and they will not tell. A few days ago one firm controlling thirty-two warehouses admitted it had in storage 44,000,000 pounds of butter that must be gotten rid of before May 1.

HASN'T FORGIVEN

Panama Is Still the Object of Colombia's Vengeful Wrath.

Colon, Jan. 18.—The Panama government has sent an expedition to nip in the bud the uprising of the Indians on the San Blas coast. This revolt, which threatened at one time to assume serious proportions, is said to have been instigated by agents sent by the government of Colombia, which has never forgiven Panama for breaking off from the parent country.

The expedition landed at the Isla de Pina, where the agitators had been making headquarters, and arrested them at once. Little if any punishment was meted out to the red men, who are regarded as having been tools. According to report from the San Blas coast, the agitators had been inducing the Indians to contribute money for the purchase of a gunboat to be used in attacking Colon. The government has its hands on Ramon Perex, said to have been a leader in the movement. He is a Colombian.

LODGE LACKED JUST ONE VOTE OF ENOUGH

But He Expects to Swing This One Over Today.

Boston, Jan. 18.—Henry Cabot Lodge failed of re-election to the United States senate in the Massachusetts legislature yesterday, but he will likely continue on the job for the next six years after the two branches of the body hold a joint convention today. Mr. Lodge was elected by the senate, having a margin of ten votes over Sherman L. Whipple, his Democratic opponent, but he fell three short of a majority in the house. In the two bodies he received a total of 141 votes, which is just a majority of the 280 members of the assembly. If he holds this vote today, and there is hardly any doubt about that, Mr. Lodge will be re-elected.

Four votes were cast for Speaker Walker, to that gentleman's displeasure, and Congressman Butler Ames got six votes, this total of ten being in the house, the best showing that the Ames insurgents could make.

Got What He Asked For.

Among the best of the stories told by Russel, one of the Edinburgh Scotsman's former editors, was an instance of the innate cleverness of the newspaper boy. Russel had entered a train at Prince's street station, Edinburgh, one Friday, when a smart little newsboy immediately called out to him, "Scotsman, sir?" "How much?" said Russel jokingly. "A penny, sir," replied the boy. "Oh," said the editor, "I don't want today's Scotsman, but if you could give me tomorrow's I would give you a sovereign for it." "Here you are, sir!" delightedly shouted the youngster and handed him the Weekly Scotsman, which bore the date of the following day. Russel paid the sovereign.

Portuguese Burial Custom.

They have an unusual mode of burial in Portugal. Instead of the headstones and monuments of the graveyards of other countries the cemetery of Lisbon shows rows and rows of tiny chapels ranged in long avenues bordered by cypress trees.

The Portuguese are reluctant to bury their dead out of sight, and these chapels serve as mortuaries for the coffins, which are placed on the shelves within. Through the iron grills the eye discerns small altars and flowers gleaming through the subdued light of the interiors.—Manchester Courier.

Health For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Coloma, Wisconsin. — "For three years I was troubled with female weakness, irregularities, backache and bearing down pains. I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking several bottles I found it was helping me, and I must say that I am perfectly well now and can not thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — Mrs. John Wentland, R. F. D., No. 3, Box 60, Coloma, Wisconsin.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

SMOKING PEACE PIPE AT THE WHITE HOUSE

New York Republicans Will Leave All to Taft.

New York, Jan. 17.—The selection of the new chairman of the Republican state committee is to be left to Mr. Taft. The leaders of the old guard and of the other faction of the New York committee have already reached a determination that they must sink their differences if the party is to have any chance of carrying the state next year for Mr. Taft. For several days before Ezra P. Prentice made known his intention to resign, conferences with both wings of the committee were on, and it can be stated as coming directly from him that the opposing leaders have come to a decision to drop their variances and have already bound themselves to an understanding to unite in the election of a new chairman who can be depended on to bring harmony once more into the organization.

A conference is in progress today at the White House. Senator Root is present, and among others there are Mr. Prentice, together with J. Sloat Fassett, Francis Hendricks, Timothy L. Woodruff and George W. Aldridge, representing the old guard, and the representatives of the progressives, as they call themselves, Lloyd C. Griscom, president of the Republican organization of this county; Herbert Parsons, and ex-Secretary of State Sam S. Koenig. It was learned from Mr. Prentice that from the conferences he has had with the members of the committee that the old guard leaders are willing to forget what happened at the Saratoga convention, when they were bested by Mr. Roosevelt, if an upstate man is selected as the new chairman, and they have already given their assurances that if this policy is adopted they will once more turn up their sleeves and start work vigorously on the preparation of plans for next year's campaign.

O. Boyce, one of the counsel for the defense. The chief features of Miss Zoeckler's testimony are that Mrs. Schenk tried to bribe her to give John O. Schenk a poison pill, offering her $1,000 for the job; that Mrs. Schenk said she would be the happiest woman in the world when her husband was dead; that the accused prayed every night that her husband would die before morning, and that it pleased her immensely when she received telephone calls each morning that her husband was worse. These things Miss Zoeckler reiterated time and again while she was under cross-examination.

ORDERS SCHEDULE PLACED IN SIGHT

Manager Alexander Shane of I. C. & C., Devises Plan to Keep Running Time Before Motormen.

WILL LEAVE CAR UNGUARDED

Each Car Will be Equipped With Clip to Hold Schedule Which Will be Placed in View of Motormen.

Alexander Shane, general manager of Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern Traction Company, has devised a plan by which a time schedule may be placed in view of the motormen while they are running the car. He has ordered that each car be equipped with a slip located directly in front of the motorman, and in the clip is a time table. Above the clip a light will be placed so that it can be read at night as well as during the day. In this manner the motormen are constantly informed as to the running time and if they give it the proper attention it will almost be impossible for them to get away from their scheduled time unless they have trouble with their cars.

There has been criticism on some interurban roads from various sources to the effect that motormen often made their entire runs without once referring to their time cards. Interurban men justify this and explain why it is not uncommon. They say that although a motorman is not asked to memorize the time card for fear his memory might play him a trick, he unconsciously does memorize it because he makes the same run day after day and he gets to know to the second just when every point on the road should be passed.

Every motorman is instructed to keep one hand on or near the brake lever and the other on the controller of the motor. Running through a thickly populated section of the country where public highways parallel the traction line and cross it at short intervals, the motorman never knows when somebody is going to get on the track. Consequently he has to have both hands ready to use in an emergency as stopping the car as quickly as possible often saves human life and the life of a cow or horse. If the motorman frequently refers to a time table in his pocket he has to take both hands to unfold the big time sheet, then he has to compare the schedule with his watch and see how near the schedule he is running. All this takes time and while the motorman is consulting his schedule and looking at his watch his hands are away from the brake lever and the controller and his eye is not on the road ahead of the speeding car. Naturally a motorman ought to consult his time sheet even if he thinks he has the whole schedule memorized but the interurban officials regard it as dangerous for the motorman to do this consulting while the car is running.

There was need for a way out of the difficulty and General Manager Shane solved the trouble by installing the clip and putting the time sheet directly before the motorman. Now each motorman can see his card at a glance and will know whether he is running according to orders. Meanwhile his hands will be grasping the proper levers and he will not have to take his eye off the road save for an instant at a time.
